PRESIDENT GREETS SCOTS

Today is a memorable day for the citizens of the City of Sydney because we greet the pride of Edinburgh — their glamor football team Heart of Midlothian.

It is not just another international team visiting Australia, it is a Scottish team, the first ever to visit Australia.

A representative of a country which has been the cradle of round ball game to the world.

Wherever soccer is played there is sure to be a Scotsman somewhere, whether it be Brazil, China, Keyna or Iceland.

The hospitality with which the Scots overhelm visitors to their country will, we hope, be surpassed by the friendly hospitality of the Australian people.

We sincerely hope that the impressions they gain of our country will be long and lasting ones.

This is why Federation retained Squad men

The "clique" that has hovered over soccer in Australia like vultures on their prey is not getting an opportunity to "pick" the "flesh" of Federation soccer and leave a carcase of mutilated "bones".

The refreshing decision of the Federation Management Committee last Monday has allayed all fears that the they might come within the orbit of this "clique".

Clubs and individuals of the Federation did not fight for so many years to be dictated to by the "survivors" of a "gang" who took everything out of soccer in this country and returned nothing for the code's development.

The Federation's affirmation of the decision that the squad should not be interfered with until after the Costa Rica game

This picture was taken in Vienna on May 9, 1937, exactly 22 years ago today.

The occasion was Scotland versus Austria in Vienna.

Scotland's team on that occasion was Dawson; Anderson and Beattie; Massie, Simpson and McNab; Delaney, Walker, O'Donnel, Napier and Gillick.

Austria's team was Platzer; Sesta and Schmaus; Adamek, Pekarek and Nausch; Geiter, Stroh, Sindelar, Jerusalem and Pesser.

Mr Walker as he is today. An astute manager, who directs the fortunes of the Hearts club. Under his guidance the club won the Scottish championship for the first time in nearly 60 years.

TEAM of the WEEK

Every week an A and B team will be selected from the best players in First Division teams.

The best A team player will be nominated as the "Player of the Week" and will score three points.

All other A team nominations will receive two points and B team players one point.

The player with the highest number of points at the end of the season will automatically become Player of the Year.

Ampol Cup fixtures, Federation Cup matches and the competition semi-finals, final and grand-final will not be taken into account.

Here are the players who stood out in last weekend's two rounds of matches.

Player of the Week
W. HENDERSON

Auburn's international goalkeeper, W. Henderson, becomes the first goalie nominated as "Player of the Week" and his brillant exhibition against Prague has won him this distinction.

Though beaten four times by close range shots he showed uncanny anticipation and his power-laden kicks always served a purpose, giving the ball to an unmarked teammate.

Bill Henderson has once more shown that he is amongst the very best in Australia and in world class.

PROGRESS POINTS: P. Peters (Corrimal), G. Vasvary (APIA) 7 points; R. McLelland (Gladesville), R. Young (Corrimal), K. Jaros (Prague), L. Baumgartner (Prague), J. Pretswell (Gladesville), J. Curry (Canterbury) each 6.

Saturday, May 16th

Who is trying to kid who

By L. K. STONE

I was rather disappointed to hear on a recent Melbourne radio sporting session Victorian Association secretary Stewart Beaton decrying Federation football.

He told listeners that Len Quested at "38 or 39" was the best player in NSW and Federation football was built around him.

L. QUESTED

I doubt that even the most rabid Auburn supporter could go along with that statement.

Mr Beaton also tried to get an embarrassed Bill Vesterwelt Wilhelmina pivot and formerly of Sydney Austral, to join with him in delcaring that Victorian soccer standard was higher than NSW.

For Beaton's sake I hope it will be one day, but doubt it if Victorian officials continue on their same track.

Recently in Sydney I saw the Federation squad to meet Costa Rica in training. club.

Included in the squad are Austrian internationals Baumgartner, Tamandl and Jaros, Hungarian Saghi an Scots international Jock Aird.

W. TAMANDL

Quested was omitted, as was Joe Marston.

Most of the players selected are in their early twenties.

It is a great pity that someone has so obviously misinformed Mr Beaton, and me, in turn, the Victorian public.

The training methods used by Federation coach Polgar were an eye-opener.

He is getting the best out of every player and putting emphasis on physical fitness and ball control.

He is cleverly varying the training routine to maintain players' interest and enthusiasm.

on May 16th, was reasonable when you consider the expense in providing you, the people who have stuck to the Federation, with a game that may be classed as Australia's first effort to meet an overseas challenge on a somewhat equal basis.

You all remember the farcical set up of Australian teams taking the field and "being introduced to each other on the way out".

Why, it is practically taking place here again today.

Today's team was only selected last week.

This is one of the reasons why the Federation is in existence.

Against England some few years back nearly 40 players were selected to represent Australia in the short few weeks of the tour.

Chaos

Representative "caps" were thrown around like confetti — no cohesion, no organisation, nothing.

Because the Federation has brought sanity back to the game some critics and we repeat some, seek to discredit it for withdrawing its squad until the day for which it is being prepared.

The preparation of this squad is costing the Federation £1914.

The squad's preparation has been timed for May 16 and any upset of this plan could affect the future of the Federation in-so-far as world reckoning is concerned, and also other points which are not opportune to mention here.

Can any sane person see something sinister in such an action?

The Federation, and not Mr Gold, is up for Costa Ricans' £8000 guarantee.

The Federation is promoting the Costa Rica tour.

The Federation has put up the security for such a tour, not Mr Gold.

The profit from the Costa Rica games returns to Federation, not Mr Gold.

Mr Skolnik is alleged to have made a profit of £17,000 from the Blackpool tour, and, as far as we are aware, not a penny has gone towards the promotion of junior soccer in this or any other State.

It has been suggested that the Federation is afraid to meet the Hearts.

Fair enough, we suppose, if you are not closely associated with Federation officials, but here and now this paper makes this challenge on behalf of the Federation of Soccer Clubs: —

We'll play the Heart of Midlothian anywhere, anytime.

In fact the game would be a "natural", and as far as Australia is concerned the greatest fixture ever staged in this country.

The Federation is very happy and delighted to cooperate in the Hearts tour, provided the democratic decisions within the committee are respected.

Mr Storey (Australian Association chairman) knew of the Costa Rican tour dates before the Hearts itinerary was drawn up.

Clash

Had he really desired to assist the Federation could he not have played the Hearts in Melbourne or some other State, thereby avoiding a clash with the Costa Ricans?

What sense was there in both tours in New South Wales at the one time?

If the Federation could have played the Costa Ricans in some other State they would have gladly done so.

In fact they made the offer to Queensland and Victoria and both rejected because they (the Costa Ricans) were not invited to this country by the Australian Soccer Football Association."

We leave it to you, the public, to judge whether the Federation's action was justified.

Tourists record

Deportivo Saprissa's record record on their present tour is as follows;

In Costa Rica: beat Dukla Prague 2—1; beat S. K. Rapid 7—2; Trupo Central lost 0—1; beat Caracas 1—0; beat Espanol 6—1; beat FC Portugese 4—2; FK Austria lost 1—6; drew Maccabbi-Tel Aviv 2—2; beat Tel-Aviv 8—2; beat Hongkong 4—1 (last Saturday).

Newcastle welcomes the Squad

The recent trip to Newcastle for the Federation squad was a tremendous success.

The hospitality of the Northern folks was much appreciated.

"Pippy" Wilkinson did the right things by a few of "boys" by allowing them the "freedom" of his hotel until the early hours of the morning.

Andy "alarm" Burton saw the "boys" left on time for work next day.

However, it was left to Tommy "Jet" Grimson to perform Miracles with his Holden in order that our good relations with our employers were maintained.

THE MATCH OF THE DAY

Letters to the Editor

Clubs have to meet big payout

Mr Arthur Turner, in last week's issue of "Soccer World", protested against the prices charged by some 1st Division clubs for admission to the stands, particularly the E. S. Marks Ground and Lambert Park.

He feels that the charge of 1/6, instead of the usual 1/-, at the Marks Ground will have a "major impact on the attendance figures".

So far, this has not proved the case.

High costs

In fact, the two biggest gates for ordinary premiership competition matches have been recorded at this ground to date.

The fact is, however, that both the E. S. Marks Ground and Lambert Park are costing the clubs using them top rental figures, exceeding, by the time percentages of the gate are included, well over £700 each.

Although general admission prices were increased by 6d. this season, it is hardly enough to cover increased cost of operations paid — professional coaches, signing-on fees and other expenses to obtain overseas and interstate players, the need to outfit and conduct three teams, playrs' fees and bonuses, extremely high insurance premiums, and many other "hidden" costs.

Soccer fans are provided with three matches, from 11.45 a.m. to 4.45 p.m., at the bargain price of 3s. a person (as against 4s. in Melbourne), plus the optional grandstand admission.

The extra grandstand charge merely helps reduce the sacrifices by club committee members, who have to dip into their own pockets to help reduce their clubs' deficits at the end of the season.

If Mr Turner or anyone else can suggest some other practical means of financing the cost of fielding three teams, of even reasonable quality, I'm sure these clubs will be grateful to him.

Federation Sunday games preview

The Auburn-Sydney Austral match at Mona Park of the round, as both teams could turn to be the best are equal fourth with APIA on nine points and a win on Saturday could be decisive, even this early in the competition.

Sydney Austral have only lost one match — to Prague — and are really playing well with their backs and goalie de Vries outstanding.

Last week's game against Gladesville was a close tussle and Austral dropped a point it could have won when Mathysen missed a penalty late in the game.

By L. Gautier

But the ex-Victorian is playing well all the same, though he must find Sydney's nippy forwards a much more formidable proposition than Victoria's top players.

Auburn went down 2—4 in a glorious game against Prague after leading 2—1 at half time.

They had the better of the play for most of the first half and though Morrow scored the best goal of the day the former Northerner missed a couple of "sitters", which could have swung the game completely in Auburn's favor.

Staples played his best match to date.

Goalie Henderson was the best man on the field, giving a copy-book display.

Prague's fine exhibition of brilliant pattern soccer once again stamped them as the best Australian club side in years, probably the best ever, and one must agree that with Prague big-time soccer has "arrived" in Australia.

The competition leaders might have their coming matches deferred as seven players will feature in representative games the next fortnight.

I expect AUBURN to defeat Sydney Austral and give their new Maltese coach, Joe Vammit, his first win in Federation Soccer.

Another Maltese, right half Dayney, made a quite debut for Auburn last week, but will improve when accustomed to the tempo of First Division Federation football.

The home team will have to battle hard, as Sydney Austral are a hard side to bustle this year and their solid style of play could bother the fast moving Auburn forwards.

South Coast fans will see Budapest for the first time when Corrimal play the Sydney sider at Memorial Park.

This should result in a win for CORRIMAL, who are playing as well as ever and are keenly awaiting Pragu's visit on May 23.

Both players and supporters think they can be the first team to topple the unbeaten leaders.

They may have a point there but I intend to discuss the matter more fully when previeving the match.

Corrimal gained another two points at Granville in a game which could have gone either way.

But Learmonth's brilliant early scoring burst won the day for the Miners, who will prove too steady for luckless Budapest.

The latter have a very good forward line, though Voros had a complete "off-day" last week, but a sub-standard defence because of suspensions and injuries.

Budapest put up a good fight in the first half of the Arlington match against Canterbury last week, but the backs were no match for the "Whoopies", and actually I thought the score flattered Budapest.

Big job for Galambos

Learmonth, Burns, Kangyar and Stewart can be a devastating lot and I expect that formidable combination to break through often if the visitors cannot field a better defence that last week's, which conceded six goals.

Galambos will have a tough job to pass Bignell, Young, Peters and Orvard, but he is playing so well now that he must always be considered a potential goal scorer.

Hakoah 'certainly made me eat my words (and my forecast) when they overhelmed North Side United last week.

Their team stuck top form, but I had not expected them to recover from their bad patch so quickly and on last Saturday's form they should win against the vastlyimproved Granville team.

The Magpies' English coach, Wilson, has done remarkably well in so short a time.

Players like Garside, Cuneen, Marshall, Creeley and Kendall are the nucleus of a team which could go far in the not too distant future.

I think 1960 could be Granville's year and this season should be one of re-adaptation to first-class soccer.

Even so the Magpies have done better than most experts predicted, as as their recent matches have proved beyond doubt.

The home teateam is always at ease on thethe big playing spaces of thethe E. S. Marks Field and thathat is why I tip HAKOAH to beat Granville.

But Walsh's his boys will have their hands fullfull with a very enterprising teateam, which will certainly have worked out some plan to upsetset the Hakoah machine, a muchuch better oiled machine these dedays, I must add.

Though beateaten by Hakoah 5—0 at Chatsatswood 'Oval, North Side United should please Lambert Park fans when thehete team plays APIA on thathat ground.

I can safely say that APIA will not have things all their own way willwill definitely not repeat their 10—0—0 trial win, though Schioniwill will be all-out trying to scoreore another brace of goals.

Vasvary was the best man of the match agaagainst Bankstown last week andand should play another "sizzlezzler", because he is anxious to impress claims for inclusion in thethe team to play Costa Rica.

Many feel thathat Wong should have been selected and spectators will be ableble to see how the wily Malayan compares with the Hungarian, one of the squad members, and if if he can inspire his team to victvictory.

North Sideside deserve better than the nearer-bottom of the table, but I thithink that the smooth-runninging APIA will add another usefuful two points to its tally.

The visitorsors have "easier" matches cominning and could make the mosost of it, but I think the Leichhardt XI will win this oneone which could, nevertheless, develop into a gruelling affair.

Playing at home, I favor GLADESVILLE to defeat Bankstown as the "Villes" will have to stop drawing matches some day.

I feel that this could be it.

Bankstown is still far from true form, though they showed real signs of recovery at the mid-week night match at Balgownie and against APIA, when Goss had put the team in front only to lose narrowly in the last 10 minutes by an odd goal in five.

Pettigrew was injured last week and the team had most of the ball for nearly all the match against Sydney Austral, but poor shooting marred their chances.

The Bankstown defence is not as solid as Austral's and I think Lewisham and Foster could have a field day if they make the most of the splendid support given by Greenfield and Wort.

Wainwright and Goss will be the visitors main hopes and Irvine could cap a good display in goal.

Concord might entertain Prague in what could be a very interesting fixture.

Prague would be expected to win comfortably, but in games like this one must always allow for a surprise.

The local team cannot be classed as scientific in the same respect as Prague.

Nevertheless they do try to play according to the 'book" as far as their ability will allow.

They are fit, but this is not enough.

They will have to provide a system of close marking and efficient cover play if they are to succeed in upsetting Prague.

On the other hand the all conquering Prague will be out to maintain their undefeated record.

Test for Balgownie

The devastation and havoc meted out by their forwards when in the mood will proide many headaches for the Concord's defenders.

The task of Concord is of course, not a forlorn one and they can take heart from Auburn's excellent effort last week when they all but won.

Canterbury might meet Balgownie, who won their first game in Federation soccer last weekend.

The southern team have found the rise in class between Association and Federation soccer has left them with a problem of improving if they are to avoid staying in their lowly position in the league.

Their win against Concord was well merited, but something extra will have to be produced if they are to seriously challenge Canterbury.

The South Coasters will improve as they adjust themselves to the higher class of football, but I hardly thing it will be their turn this week to cause an upset at Arlington.

Canterbury didn't get it all their own way last week against Budapest although in the end they went under by six goals to two.

But Canterbury has enough in reserve to overcome any Balgownie challenge.

Real and Berne win first qualifiers for European Cup semis

More than 140,000 screaming fans saw Real Madrid defeat its archrivals Atletico 2—1 in the first of two qualifying matches for the 1959 European Cup semi-final.

Bernabeu Stadium was packed hours before the kick-off and officials estimated that over 30,000 had to be turned away.

The match reached great heights in the first half and all goals came in the first 30 minutes.

Chuzo scored first for Atletico, but a minute later Di Stefano made it 1—1 and at the 30th minute ex-Hungarian Puskas put Real in front with an unstoppable penalty kick.

Unfortunately the visitors missed their penalty attempt, when Brazilian World Cup centre forward, Vava, missed his attempt, which was awarded early in the second half for some rough defensive play by Real.

Tight defence

The lighter and faster Atletico team was on top for most of the second half, but the Real backs held tight with goalie Dominguez and right half Santisteban outstanding.

The Cup holders were stronger technically, but were greatly weakened by Kopa's absence owing to injury.

Di Stefano worked tirelessly but is definitely "over the hill" and will certainly play just another season before retiring to a coaching job.

Real Madrid will have a very tough job forcing a draw, which would be sufficient to qualify them for the coveted final, when both teams meet in the return match to be played also in Madrid but on Atletico's home ground in the Metropolitano suburb.

Atletico is confident of winning with a two-goal margin in order to play at Stuttgart late this month.

Swiss champions Young Boys Berne caused an upset when they beat French League winners Rheims 1—0 in their first-semi-final match at Berne before an all-time Swiss soccer record crowd of 60,000.

The Swiss, usually a staid race, went wild with excitement and invaded the ground to chair off the winners.

The solid Berne team comfety subdued the smooth-playing Frenchmen, never giving them a chance to settle down and feed formidable goal-notcher Fontaine.

Only goal

Meier scored the only goal of the match after 10 minutes, then on the Swiss team played a very tight defensive game, and though Rheims had more of the ball they were really never very dangerous.

Paris' centrally-situated Parc des Princes should once again prove too small for the large crowd keen to watch the vital return match to be played next Wednesday.

The Swiss are "one up", but I expect Rheims to record big enough a win to go straight into its second European Cup final.

Rheims was only down 2—0 after the first match played away against Standard Liege in the quarter-finals.

Last minute information received from Madrid reveals that Kopa will be fit for the crucial Metropolitano match.

He will hold the centre forward position with di Stefano and Puskás as insides.

Mateo will be dropped and Dominguez, who has lost his wife, will be replaced by Alonzo in goal.

Missed penalty

Other news which has reached us in that Atletico may not play play Vava because he missed that vital penalty which would have clinched a draw.

It is, however, hoped that the officials of the great Spanish team will not lose their heads because of a very human failing and that Vava will be in his usual prominent position among the speedy forwards.

The Rheims Young Boys Berne Paris semi-final will be televised throughout Europe.

Both teams will be playing before an audience of 15 million which should be quite an experience when you consider that barely 45,900 will be able to fit in the stadium to see the "live" match.

Juventus outplayed 'and above all, outmanoeuvred JUST to recored an easy 4—1 victory at Olympic Park.

Eighteen-year-old Juventus centre forward Barbazza was the best player on the field and delighted the big crowd with his fine display.

Although not scoring himself, he had a hand in all four goals and even when JUST defenders resorted to heavy tackling, the young centre showed his class by cleverly side-stepping them.

His opposite number in the Jugoslav team, Olympic representative A. Beattie, also was in good form, but did not enjoy the same support from his colleagues as did Barbazza.

Both goalkeepers, Reuyters of JUST and Vitti of Juventus brought off good saves.

But JUST lacked a systematic approach to goal and this combined with Barbazza's brilliance contributed mainly to their downfall.

Goalscorers for Juventus were Bressan 2, Saico and Boz.

For JUST, the scorer was Beattie.

Box Hill were somewhat unlucky to lose 2—1 to Hakoah in a hard, but clean, game at Wembley Park.

The attendance was over 1,500 — a crowd record for the Box Hill ground.

Hakoah played the more scientific soccer, but the Hillmen were physically better equipped.

McCulloch, the Box Hill skipper and a fine sportsman, played his last game before returning to England.

The Hillmen have secured the serices of Angus Drennan, from Moreland, and he will take over the duties of captain-coach.

He had a hard first match against Hakoah's Austrian centre forward Artner, who apart from scoring both his form.

Box Hill's goalscorer was Smith.

A surprisingly disjointed Geelong team had no answer to George Cross's precision passing and the Maltese were able to coast to an easy 5—0 win.

On the day only Gennari, Windt and Ludovic were worthy of State League football, while in George Cross there was not one weakness.

Goals were credited to Sacco 2, T. Vella, Muscat and Cachia.

Moreland easily defeated Yarra Park 6—1.

Though battling gamely, the Greeks were no match for the boys from Moreland, whose representative player, Frank Loughran, was the star and scored two great goals.

Other scorerers were Hodgeon 2, Smith and Moore.

Yarra Park's goal was scored by Vlachozs.

Late run

By all accounts, the Wilhelmina v Slavia match was an encounter in which neither side asked for nor received any quarter.

The Dutch won 3—2 and their star player, Debruekere, who scored the best goal of the match, also had his name taken by the referee for saying a few unkind words to that official.

Former crack side Polonia failed to impress in their 1—1 draw with lowly Footscray—Capri.

They equalised with a penalty kick by Bottari in the last minute of play.

Footscray's goal was scored by Donna after good work by Devetak and Bruce.

Cubero was too busy helping his uncle in their Footscray fish shop.

APIA officials are delighted with their latest buy, 19-year-old Peter Jaksa, from Prague club.

Jaksa is a clever ball-player with tons of natural ability. He could be a great one if he listens to coach Gyula Polgar.

APIA worked fast to beat the "pea" Hakoah to secure Jaksa.

"UNCLE" JOE'S ELEVEN

Last year, when the finals of the Canterbury Junior competition were in full swing, three enterprising men — Tom Grimson, Jim Bellwood and "Uncle" Joe Vlasits) — went to watch and, as it turned out, a little more than watch.

privilege of playing as Canterthey picked the cream of the young crop, some dozen and a half in all, and invited them to join Canterbury club.

The sixteen-year-olds trained throughout the off-season under the personal guidance of "Uncle" Joe.

At the start of this year's comp. the kids were given the priviledge of playing as Canterbury's Third Grade team, and, so, became known as "Uncle' Joe's Eleven.

They weren't expected to win many matches, yet, out of six games played so far they dropped only one and are running third in the premiership.

As for the future?

In Joe's own words: "In five years time this team will replace our whole first grade lineup."

Well, this is one enterprising way to build football teams.

And not a bad one, at that.

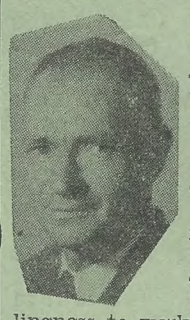
TIRELESS WORKER

In the heat of Ampol Cup fever I forgot to mention a man, who worked so hard to make it all possible.



The MAN is Harry BARTLETT, president of Bankstown Club and chief of the Federation Promotion Committee.

The series ran smoothly thanks to his organising ability and willingness to work.

He kept out of the limelight throughout, so now is the time to give him a big hand.

Also, I am personally grateful for his assistance in our "teething" period in this newspaper.

He was always ready to supply me with all kinds of data and information and just for the asking.

My sincere thanks.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

The Auburn-Prague clash last week-end turned out to be an unexpected thriller.

Everybody more or less expected a repetition of the Ampol Cup final, when Prague ran an easy winner.

Besides, I thought, just quietly, that some players might be trying to preserve their "strength" for the coming international fixture.

But this was not to be the case.

Auburn turned on some of it's best football this year and so did Prague.

We witnessed a full 90 minutes of brilliant, first-class, hard-fought football.

This is to the credit of both teams.

AROUND THE CLUBS

Bernard Bryant, former Canterbury and APIA coach, has left the Corrimal club.

His place has been taken by Australian international Ted Drain.

Bill Jameson, former first grade referee, resigned from the position of coach to the Concord club.

Former Gladesville player Ted Hillyard is quietly tipped as the new coach.

The Concord club has had a lean period in recent games, which they claim is due to National Service Training and sickness.

Granville are beginning to show a revival.

Their form in the past two weeks has been invigorating to the local supporters.

Two weeks ago they accounted for Canterbury and to show it was no fluke they nearly toppled Corrimal — further proof they are on the way back.

Gladesville's Supporters Club is holding a Picnic Dance this Saturday night at the Masonic Hall.

All players and officials of other clubs will be welcome.

Bankstown had a fine win over Balgownie last week in a floodlight fixture at Wollongong.

Englishman, Barry Wainwright, notched three fine goals.

Nice to see Hakoah fullback Peter Nash up and about again.

Peter was out of a action with a poisoned leg.

Nickie Wiesner, who retired from active play last season after the Hakoah reserve team he captained won the grand final, is coaching the third team now holding second place on the ladder.

Nickie reckons that there at least three or four lads, who are definite prospects for permanent promotion within the next couple of years.

The record crowd — 5170 — for a Federation premiership match this season highlighted the good relations between Hakoah and APIA.

Although it was a home game for Hakoah, APIA's hard-working women's committee provided refreshments for officials Gioaccino Lauro, director of the as a special welcome to Dr. Flotto Lauro shipping line and vice-president of the Naples Football Soccer Club.

Before the start of the main match, he was introduced to the players by Mr Ben Nathan, Hakoah president, and Mr Jim Bayutti, APIA president.
